The 2020 Scout of the Year trophy was created using parts from one of the many golf trophies that Jerry A. Edwards won during his career. A vintage copper "Ideal Scout" topper was added.

Jerry Arthur Edwards

29 Dec 1936 – 3 Mar 1998

Jerry Arthur Edwards, born on December 29, 1936, and passing on March 3, 1998, was a distinguished golfer and real estate professional. A notable figure in golf, Jerry showcased his talent early on by tying for medal honors with a score of 72 at the Southwestern Recreation golf meet in 1958 as a student from Paschal High School. His exceptional performance led Paschal to victory in the schoolboy division, laying the foundation for his future successes on the golf course.

He attended the University of Oklahoma, where he played on the golf team, and later obtained his degree from Texas Wesleyan in Fort Worth where he played golf as well. He served in the Army after high school.

Jerry's golfing prowess was further highlighted through his participation in the PGA tour for eight years in the 1960s, achieving his best finish as runner-up at the Byron Nelson in 1964. He even shared the lead with Jack Nicklaus after two rounds at the Memphis Open in 1963.

Throughout his career, he dominated local Fort Worth tournaments, claiming titles such as the Fort Worth Golf Association City Champion 1958, Glen Garden Invitational 1958, the Colonial Club Championship 1959, and the Ridglea Country Club Champion 1962. His success continued into the 1970s on the International Golf Association (IGA) tour, where he won numerous tournaments, including a notable victory at the DeCordova Bend Country Club in Granbury, Texas, in 1973.

Dan Jenkins, a long time and well noted sports writer, did a piece on Fort Worth golf for Sports Illustrated in the August 1965 issue entitled "Glory Game at Goat Hills". In the article he mentions Jerry Edwards humorously noting, Jerry could drive the ball four miles, or roughly the distance to old Paschal High School (now Tech), a Gibraltar of formative education that turned most of us out with degrees in Library Pass Forging, Double Lunch Period Registration, Boiler Room Smoking, Chug-a-Lug, Basketball, and Marriage. Except for a recurring Goat Hills temper, Jerry has a sound game and has been in the money many times on the PGA tour. So far, however, his greatest publicity came when he was rumored to have gone AWOL from the Army in 1962 to play in the U.S. Open.

In a 2015 interview with Dan Jenkins regarding the article, he had further humor regarding Jerry and his brother Kenneth who was also a very talented Fort Worth golfer.

The Edwards brothers, Kenneth and Jerry, worked hard to never pay for a round. Kenneth was known in Glory Game as Foot the Free, which was short for "freeloader." He and his brother Jerry would take turns distracting the pro in the shop so they could steal golf balls from the jar.

TOP TWO!—Jerry Edwards, left, of Paschal and Don Mann of Highland Park, tied for medal honors with 72s Friday in schoolboy division of Southwestern Recreation golf meet at Meadowbrook.

Southwest Rec. Golf 1955

CLUB CHAMPION — Jerry Edwards, left, accepts the trophy as Colonial golf champion after he defeated Dee Finley, 7-6, in a 36-hole match. Club President George Hill makes the presentation.

Colonial Club Champion 1959

--Star-Telegram Photo CHAMP-Jerry Edwards flashes smile after firing 67 Monday to win low pro honors in Ridglea Country Club pro-member golf tournament.

Tourney Won By Edwards

Jerry Edwards, a local pro who is on leave from the Army, fired a four-under-par 67 Monday to win top money of $500 in the fifth annual Ridglea Country Club pro-member golf tournament.

Ridglea CC Champ 1962

THE CHAMP—Jerry Edwards holds the Dr. Alden Coffey trophy after winning the city men's golf championship Saturday with a 2-1 victory over Richard (Punk) Patton at River Crest.

Fort Worth City Champ 1958

Sunday, April 19, 1964

Colonial Selects Eight More; Five Spots Open

BY JIM TRINKLE

Colonial tapped eight more players for National Invitation tournament beds Saturday, including two who arouse considerable local and state interest.

Jerry Edwards, the hand some young Fort Worth pro who tied for sixth and won $2,200 in his first start here last year, will be back. So will Ernie Vossler, the Oklahoma City pro who was teethed on Colonial's tee markers.

The other six beckoned for the May 6-10 $75,000 exposition are Ken Venturi, Dutch Harrison, Jim Ferree, Jim Ferrier, Bill Collins and Raymond Floyd.

Only five openings remain unfilled of the original 70. They are reserved for winners at Houston, San Antonio, Waco Turner Open and a pair of choices selected by a vote of ex-NIT champions.

The field already embraces champions of the world's great golf events—Julius Boros (National Open and National Invitation), Arnold Palmer (Masters), Bob Charles (British Open) and Jack Nicklaus (PGA).

Paimer, by quitting the tour for two weeks prior to the Tournament of Champions, indicated he would have his game at a peak and be physically prepared for his best challenges as Las Vegas and Colonial.

A note of interest is that Palmer played in his first National Invitation 10 years ago —and finished dead last as a rookie with 81-79-80-72—312, which is 32 over par. Then ne

ERNIE VOSSLER

HARRISON

BILL COLLINS

JERRY

EDWARDS

won the 1961 event in a playoff with Johnny Pott.

JERRE TODD'S new Colonial pressbook is off the press, sleek and informative, reeking with tradition and little journalistic curious that sports writers adore.

You can mark this down right now: Byron Nelson's socking the first ball of No. 1 tee May 7 and Ben Hogan's playing partner will be the defending champ, Julius Boros, and all current champions from all tournaments will be paired and sent away like ducks go to water—two by twos.

THE TITLE is wide open in this week's women's state public links tournament at Meadowbrook. Mrs. Helen Nash of Galveston is unable to defend on account of illness.

Contestants will play in a mixed foursome Sunday and qualify Monday.

The last time the Texas Women's Public Links Golf Association staged a tournament here was 1935—and if any of this year's entries played in that one they aren't expected to admit it.

DALLAS IS sending some of its best pros to Diamond Oaks Monday, where the Fort Worth Golf Association and North Texas PGA are sponsoring a $1,500 pro-amateur. Among the visitor's are Bobby Morris, George Alexander, Lee Trevino, Ross Collins and Gene Shields.

Each pro will have three amateurs ready for a shotgun start at either 8 a. m. or 1 p. m., Pro Doug Higgins said. Since between 40 and 50 pros are expected, he asks all interested amateurs to cail him at TE 4-5751 or FWGA President Wendell Conditt at MA 4-8491.

* * *

THE ANNUAL North Texas Senior Invitational for players 50 and over will be played at Eastern Hills CC in Garland April 27-29. Entry fee for the 54-hole tournament is $15. Carts may be reserved by mailing entry fees to Mac McClafferty or Pro George Alexander by April 20.

Youngster's Never-Miss Stuns River Crest Vets

McKinney Forced to Rally for Triumph Over 13-Year-Old

BY GENE GREGSTON. Star-Telegram Sports Writer.

BY GENE GREGSTON. Star-Telegram Sports Writer. You take any other 13-year-old golfer in the nation and Bud McKinney of Dallas will take Jerry Edwards, the Fort Worth youngster who rapidly is climb-ing the links ladder and appar-ently has success as his goal. The lad convinced McKinney Thursday during a first-round match in the 25th annual River Crest Country Club Invitation golf tournament. Edwards almost was too con-

Edwards almost was too con-vincing for McKinney's comfort. Went 20 Holes.

Went 20 Holes. In a battle that pitted a youth of 13 against the veteran player of 41, the schoolboy was never headed until McKinney finally edged by for a triumph on the 20th hole. Edwards had twice held 3-hp

Edwards had twice held 3-up margins, was 1-up coming to the 18th against a strong south wind. But there, McKinney, medalist in this tournament last year and a 22-hole loser to the 1949 cham-pion, Billy Bob Coffey, won with a par four to extend the match into extra holes. After halving the 19th with par fours, McKinney's par on the 20th closed it out as Jerry hit his second over the green, chipped back and two-putted for a bogey. Edwards had twice held 3-up his second over the green, chipped back and two-putted for a bogey. "Why, he's the best player in the nation at 13 years of age," exclaimed McKinney. "I don't just mean Fort Worth, Dallas or Texas, I mean the whole coun-try. He hit every drive around 240 or 250 yards. Why, he's going to be territic if he keeps going." McKinney explained his vic-tory: "He had me gone until we got around there to 15 or maybe 14. He'd been carrying his own clubs, making his own decisions. But somebody gave him a caddy and he started listening to the caddies. He took their advice on some putts and missed them. He'd been making them, too, with his own decisions. I did the same thing when I was a kid though. Once down at Houston I was beating somebody and peo-ple started shoving caddies, golf balls and everything else at me and I lost the match." Coffey Eliminated. Had Edwards carried through his advantages to a victory, it would have been the major oc-currence on Thursday's opening-day program. At it evolved, however, there currence on Thursday's opening-day program. At it evolved, however, there were no surprising reversals in the first round of match play although Carl Vandervoort Jr. assured the tournament of a new champion by eliminating the defending titlist, Billy Bob Cof-fey laun defending titlist, Billy Bob Cof-fey, 1-up. This was a see-saw battle in which both had the lead several times. They halved only five of the 18 holes and Coffey held a 1-up margin through 16. But Carl won 17 with a par three and 18 with a bogey five as Coffey three-putted for a six. Otherwise the "name" contest-ants moved into Friday's second round en masse.

round en masse. The first-round results:

Star-Telegram Staff Photo GREAT GOING, SON!-Bud McKinney, right, congratulates 13-year-old Jerry Edwards on fine performance after youngster almost beat Dallas veteran in first round of River Crest Invitation tournament. McKinney came from behind to win on 20th hole.

Four Favorites Eye Breckenridge Medal

BY PHIL COLLIER. ports

BRECKENRIDGE, June 23 .- Ed Hopkins, Bobby Adair, Buster Reed and Lee Pinkston were regarded as co-favorites for medalist and championship honors here Friday as an estimated 120 amateurs posted qualifying scores in Breck-enridge Country Club's annual invitation golf tournament.

Hopkins, the defending cham-pion from University of Texas, was scheduled to qualify late Fri-day afternoon.

Adair, 1948 champion here, and Adair, 1948 champion nere, and Breckenridge's finest young shot-maker, hoped Friday to better the five-under-par 69 he posted Thursday while leading his four-some to a tie for first place in West Texas pro-amateur play.

high school championship. He tied the Abilene Country Club course record, with a nine-under.par 62 early this week and played - here Thursday but re-ported no score. Breckenridge Country Club's 6,010-yard, par-74 layout has very small greens and Pinkston has an exceptionally good short-iron game. This combination may make the Abilene product a par-ticularly stout title contender. Reed, 21-year-old North Texas

Reed, 21 year-old North Texas State College player who won the Ranger Invitation three weeks of the result of the day morning. The 18-hole finals will be held Sunday afternoon.

To the surprise of host pro, J. T. Hammett, Adair's team and another foursome headed by Cliff Calderwood of Brownwood fired 12-under-par 62s Thursday to tie for first place in the pro-amateur. Hammett wasn't surprised over his own score, a six-under-par 68 good for first place among the pros, but he did say that he hadn't expected any of the teams to break 64.

Pinkston is the 18-year-old Abi-lene youth who holds the state high school championship. Red Sox Deny McCarthy To Resign as Manager To Resign as Manager

BUFFALO, N: Y., June 23 (INS).-Boston Red Sox Manager Joe McCarthy was at his Buffalo home for a "complete rest" Fri-day and the baseball world speculated if history was going to repeat itself.

The 63-year-old manager left The ba-year-old manager left his staggering team in Chicago to come home for a rest and a physi-cal checkup. McCarthy reported-ly suffered an attack of pleurisy

13 yo Jerry Edwards almost beat 41 yo veteran @ River Crest Invitational

Star-Telegram June 23, 1950

PASCHAL POWER — Quarterback Robert Campbell, Halfbacks Carl Moore and Jerry Edwards and Fullback -star-Telegram Photo. Doug Crow, left to right, form Paschal's No. 1 backfield. Moore and Edwards are lettermen.

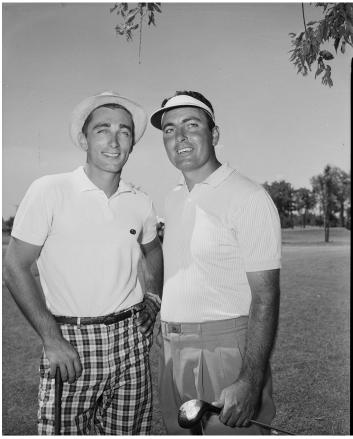

Jerry Edwards

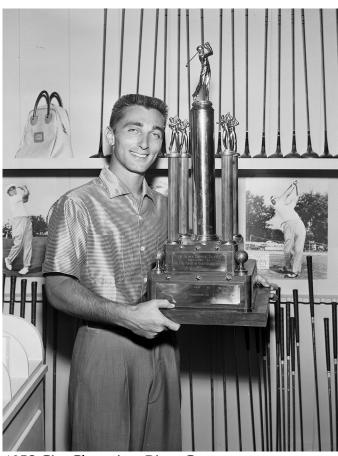

SALUTE NEW FLAG—Cub Scout members of Pack Three, all of whom attend Alice Carlson Elementary School, salute the flag presented to them by J. J. Langever as Mrs. Burke Brewster, pack mother, watches. First row, left to right, Marvin Brown Jr., Albert Wetsel, Bobby Collett, Jerry Edwards and Webb Brewster. Second row, left to right, Bobby Shaw, Frank Moreland and Gene Ingebritson. (Staff Photo.)

Star-Telegram, Oct 2, 1946

Pictures @ UTA Library Digital Gallery

Search Item: "Jerry Edwards"

1958 City Champion, River Crest

1953 Paschal Golf

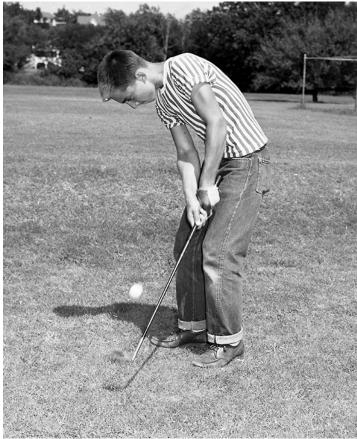

1958 Glen Garden Invitational

1950 River Crest Invitational. 13 yo Jerry Edwards almost defeats 41 yo veteran Bud McKinney

1950 City Junior Tournament

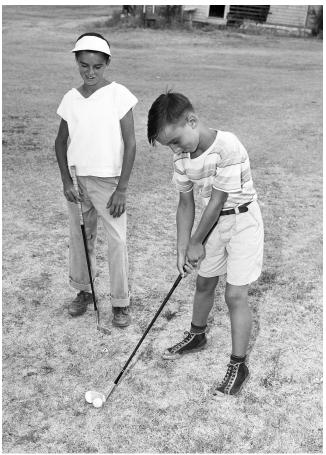

1950 City Junior Tournament

1947 Junior Tournament

1947 City Junior Tournament (no link)

1946 City Junior Tournament

Figure 1: 1953 Paschal Backfield. Jerry Edwards #17